

Objectives

In this section you will:

- Know the different database key words including record, file, table, field, data and key field.
- Understand the different ways in which databases are structured and organised.
- Be able to sort data in a database in both ascending and descending order.