

Objectives

In this section you will:

- Know the difference between flat-file and relational databases.
- Understand the term 'data redundancy' and be able to describe what it means.
- Be able to describe how to join two database tables together using primary keys and foreign keys.