

Learning Objectives

In this section you will:

- Know the fundamentals of the IGCSE ICT course.
- Understand the difference between hardware and software.
- Be able to identify the different types of computers by sight.
- Be able to describe the uses and advantages / disadvantages of each computer type.

Success Criteria:

You Must: Have read through the content of the course syllabus and know where to access course material.

You Should: Complete both hardware/software tasks and have them checked for accuracy.

You Could: Do all of the above and complete the 'Types of computers' task sheet and have it checked for accuracy.